

OGP UK National Action Plan 2013-15
Commitment progress update

Commitment title
Extractives
Lead department(s)	Department for Business, Innovation and Skills, HM Treasury
Civil society organisation(s) involved in implementation to date	CAFOD, Christian Aid, Global Witness, ONE, Open Knowledge Foundation, OpenCorporates, Publish What You Pay, Revenue Watch Insitutue, Tearfund, Transparency International UK
Report date	30 April 2014
Overall commitment status	In progress
Overall progress against commitment
The UK has begun transposition of the EU Accounting Directive and is preparing its application for EITI candidate status
Progress against milestones/activities
1.	2013 – The UK establishes an EITI multi-stakeholder group	Completed
The UK EITI multi-stakeholder group has now been setup and the first meeting took place on 9 October 2013
2.	2013 – The UK government consults on draft transposition legislation for the Accounting Directive	On track
The UK launched its consultation online on 28 March 2014. Closing date is 16 May 2014.
3.	2014 – The UK is formally recognised as an EITI candidate country	On track
The UK is making progress on EITI implementation and intends to apply for candidacy by the end of 2014
4.	2014 – The UK completes transposition of the Accounting Directive and accompanying guidance recommends that UK-registered extractive companies publish data in an open and accessible format	On track
5.	2015 – The UK publishes its first EITI report and the multi-stakeholder group will have considered options to publish it in an open and accessible format	On track
6.	2015 – UK legislation comes into force requiring UK-listed and UK registered extractive companies to publish data under the EU Accounting and Transparency Directives	On track

OGP UK National Action Plan 2013-15
Commitment progress update

7.	2016 – UK listed and UK registered extractive companies will start to publish data under the EU Directives in an open and accessible format	On track
----	---	----------