

Commitments in the second action plan were positive, but incremental in ambition. In the public eye, questions about the openness and transparency of the U.S. government, due to defense and security controversies, overshadow the success of many commitments.

Commitment Performance

Content

* midterm data
 ** for most recent IRM data

Key Recommendations

- ✓ Promote wider engagement with a more varied group of CSOs
- ✓ Promote permanent reforms in declassification and over-classification, foreign intelligence and surveillance, and whistleblower protection
- ✓ Support continuity of open government initiatives during and after an administrative transition

Consultation Process

