

Despite turbulent economic and political times, Mongolia's first action plan included ambitious transparency commitments, especially in the mining sector. Full commitment implementation remains a challenge in addition to expanding OGP commitments to cover areas such as public procurement and anti-corruption.

Commitment Performance

* midterm data

Content

Key Recommendations

- ✓ Develop the structure of authority and responsibilities for the OGP Council
- ✓ Include at least one commitment on civic participation and/or public accountability in the extractives sector
- ✓ Ensure future commitment supporting Media Freedom

Consultation Process

