

Open Government Partnership
Independent Reporting Mechanism
United Kingdom
Comments Received on the Second
Progress Report

This is a very helpful and comprehensive report. We would like to suggest one addition in relation to the UK's commitment on beneficial ownership. While this is something that had been discussed by various countries, not least through the G8 meeting that you reference, the UK was the first country to commit to a publicly available register of beneficial ownership and it would be useful to reflect this in the IRM report.

- Lizetta Lyster, Transparency Team, Government Innovation Group