

Diversity in Action Plans is Growing

Countries tackling new themes in action plans¹

NETHERLANDS

- Electoral transparency
- Plain language in government
- Open-source
- Public service complaints

LIBERIA

- Transparency and participation in healthcare
- Tax revenue transparency
- Gender-based violence prevention
- Youth civic participation

SPAIN

- Public integrity systems
- Registry of interest groups
- Artificial intelligence
- Whistleblower protection

ROMANIA

- Rights of linguistic minorities
- Health and social responsibility
- De-bureaucratization

ALBANIA

- Integrity plans
- Beneficial ownership
- Access to legal aid

INDONESIA

- Civic space
- Social accountability
- Inclusion of marginalized people

CHILE

- Open parliament
- Human Rights

COTE D'IVOIRE

- Teleworking
- Provision of school canteens

CZECH REPUBLIC

- Transparency of public grants
- Civil society engagement in decision making

UKRAINE

- Participation of young people
- Gender disaggregated data

ESTONIA

- Whistleblower protection

KENYA

- Access to Justice

commitments in new areas

Sources: ¹Data from IRM Reviews of 15 Action Plans 2020–2022

Design: Alex Plunkett, Berlin